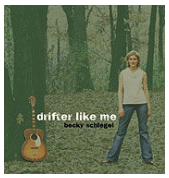
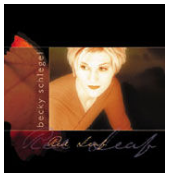
2008. Becky's newest national release, featuring some good solid bluegrass, some beautiful country, and some newer-sounding songs . 11 songs, all written by Becky and recorded with the very best musicians.

2008. The overwhelming success of "Heartaches" prompted Becky to go back into the studio and answer her many requests for ballads. 11 beautiful songs, including Satin Sheets, Release Me, End Of The World, and more. A must for the Country Fan!

2008. Made especially for Becky's fans who love the good old country music, this features "If You Leave Me Will You Take Me Along," "Early (One Horse Town)," "I Never Once Stopped Loving You" and other timeless hits.



2005. This is the first CD by Becky that features Brian Fesler on banjo and guitar. 11 original songs. Very pretty songs that sound like contemporary bluegrass. This was chosen as one of the top 10 records of the year for Minneapolis/St. Paul.



2002. This one is very pretty. All 10 songs were written by Becky. There is no banjo on this record, and the songs all sound modern, with some light drumming and beautiful mandolin work by Peter Ostroushko. Becky won many awards for this record.
